Creed and Collects

Hymn No. 584

"Go, Labor on"

Calkin

Address, by the Vicar

"The Angelus"

Offertory Anthem "The Twilight Shadows Fall"

Wood

The twilight shadows fall,

But do not fear,

At evening comes the call

"Be of good cheer."

Though dark the clouds above,

Trusting our Father's love,

The sun sets clear.

The twilight shadows fall,

We kneel at peace

With Thee, the world and all

Our faith increase.

Truth, hope and love abide,

Lord, Thou hast satisfied,

Vain troubling cease.

The twilight shadows fall,

Life's goal is nigh:

We soon may hear Thee call,

"Come up on high."

Then fades the night away,

Greet we the perfect day,

God's cloudless sky.

Closing Prayers and Benediction

Recessional Hymn No. 460 "The God of Abraham Praise"

Stainer

Next Sunday evening, Bishop Garland will administer the sacred rite of Confirmation.

On Sunday evening, March 15th, the Choir will sing Maunder's "Penitence, Pardon, and Peace."

Creed and Collects

Hymn No. 357 "O Jesus, Thou Art Standing" Knecht

Address, by the Vicar on "The Light of the World," by Hunt

Offertory Anthem "Arise, Shine, for Thy Light Is Come" Rogers

Arise, shine, for thy light is come, and the glory of the Lord is risen upon thee.

For behold, the darkness shall cover the earth, and gross darkness the people. But the Lord shall upon thee, and His glory shall be seen upon thee.

And the Gentiles shall come to thy light, and kings to the brightness of thy rising.

Closing Prayers and Benediction

Recessional Hymn No. 487 "Rise, Crowned with Light" Lwoff

Next Sunday evening the Vicar will speak on Da Vinci's famous painting "The Last Supper."

On Palm Sunday evening (April 5), the Choir will present "The Crucifixion" by Stainer.

Creed and Collects

Hymn No. 231 "My God, and Is Thy Table Spread" Miller

Address, by the Vicar: "The Last Supper"

Offertory Anthem "O Come to My Heart, Lord Jesus" Ambrose

Thou didst leave Thy Throne and Thy kingly crown
When Thou camest to earth for me;
But in Bethlehem's home was there found no room
For Thy holy nativity.

O come to my heart, Lord Jesus,
There is room in my heart for Thee.

The foxes found rest and the birds had their nest,
In the shade of the forest tree;
But Thy couch was the sod, O Thou Son of God,
In the desert of Galilee.

O come to my heart, Lord Jesus,
There is room in my heart for Thee.

When the heavens shall ring and the angels shall sing
At Thy coming to victory;

Let Thy voice call me home, saying "Yet there is room,
There is room at My side for thee."

And my heart shall rejoice, Lord Jesus,
When Thou comest and callest for me.

Closing Prayers and Benediction

Recessional Hymn No. 432 "Love Divine, All Love Excelling" Le Jeune

Next Sunday evening, the Choir will present "The Crucifixion" by Stainer.

Anthem—"Be ye all of one Mind".....A. E. Godfrey

"Be ye all of one mind, having compassion one of another; love as brethern; be pitiful, be courteous; not rendering evil for evil or railing for railing; but contrariwise blessing; knowing that ye are thereunto called that ye should inherit a blessing.

For he that will love life and see good days, let him refrain his tongue from evil, and his lips that they speak no guile; let him eschew evil and do good; let him seek peace and ensue it.

For the eyes of the Lord are over the righteous, and His ears are open unto their prayers; but the face of the Lord is against them that do evil, and His ears are open unto their prayers. AMEN."

“Repent Ye”J. C. Scott

“In those days came John the Baptist, preaching in the wilderness of Judea and saying Repent ye: for the Kingdom of Heaven is at hand. For this is he that was spoken of by the Prophet Esaias, saying, The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight. O generation of vipers, who hath warned you to flee from the wrath to come? Bring forth therefore fruits meet for repentance; I indeed baptize you with water unto repentance, but he that cometh after me is mightier than I, whose shoes I am not worthy to bear; he shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost and with fire; whose fan is in his hand, and he will thoroughly purge his flour, and gather his wheat into the garner, but he will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire. Repent ye, for the Kingdom of Heaven is at hand.”

“The Great Awakening”A. W. Kremer

“A beggar stood at the House of God

At the sacred door one morn,

And the wind was sharp with winter's teeth,

And he shook in his rags forlorn;

The organ pealed within the church,

A hymn of warmth and cheer,

And the beggar smiled as a beggar will,

Who has no God to fear.

The rich man brushed him rough aside,

The toiler spake awhile,

The widow dropped her widow's mite,

The courtesan a smile.

The organ pealed in thunderous praise,

The saints on flowers stood,

And I looked beneath the beggar's rags,

And there revealed stood God.”

Offertory Anthem—“Fear Not, O Israel” M. Spicker

“Behold! There shall be a day when the watchman upon the mountain top shall cry aloud: “Arise ye! Get ye up unto Mount Zion, unto the Lord your God!” For thus saith the Lord: Fear not now O Israel, neither be thou dismayed. Refrain thine voice from weeping and thine eyes from tears, for I, the Lord, am with thee and will save thee. I have loved thee with everlasting love, and have redeemed thee. Why criest thou in thine affliction? Why mournest thou in nightly watches? I have redeemed thee. Therefore thus saith the Lord: Sing ye aloud with gladness! Thy mourning is turned into joy. I, even I have redeemed thee. Be glad and rejoice. Thy sorrows now are ended, and great shall be thy peace. Rejoice, be glad and rejoice.”

“Being Saved”

Offertory Anthem—“Lead Kindly Light”D. P. Evans

Lead, kindly Light, amid the encircling gloom,
Lead Thou me on!
The night is dark, and I am far from home,
Lead Thou me on!
Keep Thou my feet! I do not ask to see
The distant scene; one step enough for me.

I was not ever thus, nor prayed that Thou Shouldst lead me on;
I loved to choose and see my path; but now
Lead Thou me on!
I loved the garish day; and, spite of fears,
Pride ruled my will: remember not past years.

So long Thy power has blest me, sure it still
Will lead me on
O’er moor and fen, o’er crag and torrent, till
The night is gone;
And with the morn those angel faces smile,
Which I have loved long since, and lost awhile.

NEXT SUNDAY

December 6th

Our Day of Reconstruction
Four Things for Us to Do

- I. We are all coming to Church, morning or evening (preferably both); rain or shine. Can we have 100% of our members present?
Yes, if you want it.
- II. We are coming to consecrate or reconsecrate our lives to God and his kingdom.
- III. We are coming with the prayer that God will accept this offering of ourselves and bless us and all we have to His service.
- IV. We are going to place our pledge for 1926 (a real gift of ourselves, made in prayer) on the Alms Basin and present it at the Altar, as an evidence of our sincerity and the honesty of our intentions; and a measure of our Love for God and His Church.

LET US MAKE IT A GREAT OUTPOURING
OF OURSELVES IN WILLING SACRIFICE!
LET US PRAY THAT IT MAY BE TO ALL A GREAT IN-POURING OF GOD'S HOLY SPIRIT!

DON'T MAR THE DAY BY YOUR ABSENCE

DO YOU KNOW?

Next Friday and Saturday, Dec. 4th and 5th
is the time for our Bazaar?

This BAZAAR is to help support Dr. Burke, our Medical Missionary in Alaska.

This BAZAAR is responsible for our Church meeting its Quota to the Diocese.

We depend on everyone to do his or her part. It cannot succeed otherwise.

We want to know if you are coming to supper, either night, or both.

WHAT IS YOUR ANSWER TO CHRIST?

- (1) All of self, and none of Thee.
- (2) Some of self, and some of Thee.
- (3) Less of self, and more of Thee.
- (4) None of self, and all of Thee.

Your self-giving today places you in one of these classes.

Carol—"Silent Night"Gruber

Silent night, Holy night,
All is calm, all is bright,
Round you Virgin Mother and Child,
Holy Infant so tender and mild,
Sleep in heavenly peace,
Sleep in heavenly peace.

Silent night, Holy night,
Shepherds quake at the sight,
Glories stream from heaven afar,
Heav'nly hosts sing Alleluia;
Christ the Saviour is born,
Christ the Saviour is born.

Silent night, Holy night,
Son of God, love's pure light,
Radiant beams from Thy holy face,
With the dawn of redeeming grace,
Jesus, Lord at Thy birth,
Jesus, Lord, at Thy birth.

Benediction

Hymn Willis

IT came upon the midnight clear,
That glorious song of old,
From angels bending near the earth
To touch their harps of gold;
Peace on the earth, good-will to men,
From heaven's all-gracious King;
The world in solemn stillness lay
To hear the angels sing.

2 Still through the cloven skies they come,
With peaceful wings unfurled;
And still their heavenly music floats
O'er all the weary world;
Above its sad and lonely plains
They bend on hovering wing,
And ever o'er its Babel sounds
The blessed angels sing.

3 O ye, beneath life's crushing load,
Whose forms are bending low,
Who toil along the climbing way
With painful steps and slow!
Look now, for glad and golden hours
Come swiftly on the wing:
Oh, rest beside the weary road,
And hear the angels sing.

4 For lo, the days are hastening on,
By prophets seen of old,
When with the ever-circling years,
Shall come the time foretold,
When the new heaven and earth shall own
The Prince of Peace their King,
And the whole world send back the song
Which now the angels sing.

ST. STEPHEN'S DAY

December 26, 1926

THE CHRISTMAS STORY IN SONG

GRANT, O Lord, that, in all our sufferings here upon earth for the testimony of thy truth, we may steadfastly look up to heaven, and by faith behold the glory that shall be revealed; and, being filled with the Holy Ghost, may learn to love and bless our persecutors by the example of thy first Martyr Saint Stephen, who prayed for his murderers to thee, O blessed Jesus, who standest at the right hand of God to succour all those who suffer for thee, our only Mediator and Advocate.
Amen.

ORDER OF EVENING SERVICE

8 P. M.

Opening Hymn Reading

Oh come, all ye faithful, joyful and triumphant;
Oh come ye, oh come ye to Bethlehem:
Come and behold Him born the King
of angels;
Oh come, let us adore Him,
Oh come, let us adore Him,
Oh come, let us adore Him, Christ the Lord.

God of God, Light of Light,
Lo! He abhors not the Virgin's womb;
Very God, begotten, not created;
Oh come, let us adore Him, etc.

Opening Sentences

Carol—"The First Nowell".....Traditional

The first Nowell the angel did say
Was to certain poor shepherds in fields
as they lay;
In fields where they lay keeping their sheep
On a cold winter's night that was so deep.
Nowell; Nowell; Nowell; Nowell;
Born is the King of Israel.

They looked up and saw a star
Shining in the East, beyond them far,
And to the earth it gave great light,
And so it continued both day and night.

Lesson—Acts 7 : 59 to 8 : 8

Hymn Traditional

While shepherds watched their flocks
by night,
All seated on the ground,
The angel of the Lord came down,
And glory shone around.

"Fear not," said he, for mighty dread
Had seized their troubled mind:
"Glad tidings of great joy I bring
To you and all mankind.

"To you, in David's town, this day
Is born of David's line,
The Saviour, Who is Christ the Lord;
And this shall be the sign:

Sing, choirs of angels, sing in exultation,
Sing, all ye citizens of heaven above,
Glory to God in the highest;
Oh come, let us adore Him, etc.

Yea, Lord, we greet Thee, born this happy morning;
Jesus, to Thee be glory given;
Word of the Father, now in flesh
appearing;
Oh come, let us adore Him,
Oh come, let us adore Him,
Oh come, let us adore Him, Christ the
Lord.

This star drew nigh to the north-west,
O'er Bethlehem it took its rest,
And there it did both stop and stay
Right over the place where Jesus lay.

They enter'd in there, Wisemen three,
Full reverently upon their knee,
And offered there in His presence,
Their gold and myrrh and frankincense.

Traditional

"The heavenly Babe you there shall find
To human view displayed,
All meanly wrapt in swathing bands,
And in a manger laid."

Thus spake the seraph; and forthwith
Appeared a shining throng
Of angels praising God, who thus
Addressed their joyful song:

"All glory be to God on high,
And to the earth be peace;
Good-will henceforth from heaven to men
Begin and never cease."

Creed and Prayers

Hymn Redner

O little town of Bethlehem!
How still we see thee lie;
Above thy deep and dreamless sleep
The silent stars go by;
Yet in thy dark streets shineth
The everlasting Light;
The hopes and fears of all the years
Are met in Thee tonight.

How silently, how silently,
The wondrous gift is given!
So God imparts to human hearts
The blessings of His heaven.
No ear may hear His coming,
But in this world of sin,
Where meek souls will receive Him still,
The dear Christ enters in.

For Christ is born of Mary,
And gathered all above,
While mortals sleep, the angels keep
Their watch of wondering love.
O morning stars, together
Proclaim the holy birth!
And praises sing to God the King
And peace to men on earth.

O holy Child of Bethlehem!
Descend to us, we pray;
Cast out our sin, and enter in,
Be born in us today.
We hear the Christmas angels
The great glad tidings tell;
Oh come to us, abide with us,
Our Lord Emmanuel!

Carol—"Joy to the World".....Handel

Joy to the world! the Lord is come:
Let earth receive her King;
Let every heart prepare Him room,
And heaven and nature sing.

Joy to the world! the Saviour reigns;
Let men their songs employ;
While fields and floods, rocks, hills and plains,
Repeat the sounding joy.

He rules the world with truth and grace,
And makes the nations prove
The glories of His righteousness,
And wonders of His love.

Offertory Anthem—"The Night Song of Bethlehem".....D. Buck

Night hath enshrouded Bethlehem's plain,
Hushed is the world in sleep,
Shepherds alone their silent watch maintain,
Drowsily, drowsily, guarding their sheep.

But look! look, what glory!
In the West what radiant star!
And hark! hark, what anthem
Resounds from the skies afar?

Frightened from dreaming, dazed by the gleaming,
What hear they, what see they now?
From the high heav'n, with constant increase,
Swells the glad song that never shall cease:
"To men of good-will on earth be peace.
Hosanna! Hosanna! Hosanna in the highest."

Now enter the Magi the stable door;
Hush'd is the world in sleep;
The shepherds follow with them to adore;
No longer shall silence they keep.

Shout, ye shepherds, in rapture!
Messiah is born at last!
Rejoice, ye learned Magi!
The night of your doubt is past.

To Him, our salvation, they bring adoration,
With gifts as they humbly kneel.
Then swell the glad song that never shall cease,
The lay that shall ever and ever increase:
"To men of good-will on earth be peace.
Hosanna! Hosanna! Hosanna in the highest!"

Sleep, Holy Babe! In slumber lie
Upon Thy mother's breast;
Her gentle arms enfold Thee,
Her wondering eyes behold Thee
In calm and peaceful rest.

Sleep, Holy Babe! In slumber lie,
The Magi prostrate fall,
And precious gifts they bear Thee,
The king supreme declared Thee
Beside a lowly stall.

Sleep, Holy Babe; In slumber lie,
The angels wing their flight,
They bow in love before Thee,
They praise Thee, and adore Thee,
And watch Thee through the night.

Sleep, Holy Babe! In slumber lie,
The hosts of heaven and earth
Still lay their gifts before Thee,
Still worship and adore Thee,
And praise Thy wondrous birth.

Offertory Anthem—"Sing, Christmas Bells".....H. A. Matthews

Sing, sing, Christmas bells!
Say to the earth this is the morn
Whereon our Saviour King is born;
Sing to all men, the bond, the free,
The rich, the poor, the high, the low,
The little child that sports in glee,
The aged folk that tottering go,
Proclaim the morn that Christ is
born,

That saveth them and saveth me!

Sing, heav'nly host! Sing, heav'nly host;
Sing of the star that God has placed
Above the manger in the east;
Sing of the glories of the night,
The Virgin's sweet humility,
The Babe with kingly robes belight,
Sing to all men where'er they be
This Christmas morn, for Christ is born

That saveth them and saveth me.

Sing, sing, sons of earth!
O ransomed seed of Adam, sing!
God liveth and we have a king!
The curse is gone, the bond are free,
By Bethlehem's star that brightly
beamed,
By all the heav'nly signs that be,
We know that Israel is redeemed,
That on this morn the Christ is
born,
That saveth you and saveth me.

Hark! Hark! Hark! Hark! Hark! Hark!
Hark! What mean those holy voices,
Sweetly sounding through the skies?
Lo! the 'angelic host rejoices,
Heavenly alleluias rise.

Listen to the wondrous story,
Which they chant in hymns of joy,
"Glory in the highest, Glory!
Glory be to God most high!

Peace on earth, good-will from heaven,
Reaching far as man is found,
Souls redeemed and sins forgiven,
Loud our golden harps shall sound.

Christ is born, the great Anointed!
Heaven and earth His praises sing!
O receive Whom God appointed
For your Prophet, Priest and King!

Though dark the clouds above,
Trusting our Father's love,
The sun sets clear.

The twilight shadows fall,
We kneel at peace
With Thee, the world and all.
Our faith increase.
Truth, hope and love abide,
Truth, hope and love abide,
Lord, Thou hast satisfied,
Vain troubling cease.

The twilight shadows fall,
Life's goal is high;
We soon may hear Thee call
"Come up on high."

Offertory Anthem—"Lights Glittering Morn Bedecks the Sky" . H. Parker

Lights glittering morn bedecks the sky;
Heav'n thunders forth its victor cry;
The glad earth shouts her triumph
high,

And groaning hell makes wild reply,
While He, the King, the mighty King.
Despoileth death of all its sting,
And trampling down the powers of might,

Brings forth His ransomed Saints to light.

That Easter-tide with joy was bright,
The sun shone out with fairer light,
When to their longing eyes restor'd
Th' Apostles saw their risen Lord:

He bade them see His hands, His side,
Where yet the glorious wounds abide;

Those tokens true which made it plain
Their Lord indeed was risen again.

O Jesus, King of gentleness,
Do Thou Thyself our hearts possess;
That we may give Thee all our days,
The tribute of our grateful praise.

O Lord of all with us abide,
(The strife is o'er, the battle done)
In this our joyful Easter-tide;
(The victory of life is won)
From every weapon death can wield,
(The song of triumph has begun)
Thine owned redeemed forever shield.
Alleluia!

All praise be Thine, O risen Lord,
From death to endless life restored.
All praise to God, the Father be,
And Holy Ghost eternally.
Alleluia! Amen.

Offeratory Anthem—Behold, I Show You a Mystery.....Wood

Behold, I show you a mystery; we be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed, in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet: The trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed. So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory.

Oh! death, where is thy sting? O! grave, where is thy victory? The sting of death is sin; and the strength of sin is the law. But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory, through our Lord Jesus Christ. Christ is risen, the Lord is risen indeed, risen from the dead.

If ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God. Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth. For we are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God. When Christ, Who is our life, shall appear, then shall ye also appear with Him in glory. O! death, where is thy sting? He hath conquered death.

Thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. He hath conquered death, and hath opened unto us the gate of everlasting life. Alleluia, Amen.

And He said unto them,

BARITONE. Recitative.

It is written, My house shall be called a house of prayer; but ye have made it a den of robbers.

CHORUS.

Another temple waits Thee, Lord divine,
The temple of my heart, O make it Thine!
Drive far away the sin that would ensnare;
O cleanse Thy courts, and bless Thine altar
there.

No voice but Thine can make it free,

From all that is unworthy Thee!

Temptations' wiles Thy sacred courts assail!
O hear my cry! then shall my soul prevail!

(Psalm lxxxvi. 1.)

Bow down Thine ear, O Lord, for I am poor and in misery.

(Psalm xxv. 17.)

Look upon mine adversity and misery, and forgive me all my sin.

(Psalms lxxx. 14, and lxxxv. 4.)

Sermon—by the Vicar
Offertory Anthem—"Holy City"Adams
 Elizabeth Bell Hunter, Contralto

Last night I lay a-sleeping,
There came a dream so fair;
I stood in old Jerusalem,
Beside the Temple there;
I heard the children singing,
And ever as they sang,
Me thought the voice of Angels,
From Heav'n in answer rang.
Jerusalem Jerusalem,
Lift up your gates and sing
Hosanna in the highest,
Hosanna to your King.
And then me thought my dream was
chang'd,
The streets no longer rang,
Hush'd were the glad Hosannas,
The little children sang,
The sun grew dark with mystery,
The morn was cold and chill,
As the shadow of a cross arose,
Upon a lonely hill.

Jerusalem, Jerusalem,
Hark! how the Angels sing,
Hosanna in the highest,
Hosanna to your King.
And once again the scene was change'd,
Now earth there seemed to be.
I saw the Holy City,
Beside the tideless sea,
The light of God was on its street.
The gates were open wide,
And all who would might enter,
And no one was denied.
No need of moon or stars by night,
Nor sun to shine by day
It was the new Jerusalem,
That would not pass away.
Jerusalem, Jerusalem,
Sing for the night is o'er,
Hosanna in the highest,
Hosanna for evermore.

Tarry with me, O my Saviour!
For the day is passing by.
See, the shades of evening gather!
And the night is drawing nigh.

Deeper, deeper grow the shadows,
Paler now the glowing west,
Swift the night of death advances;
Shall it be the night of rest?

Lonely seems the vale of shadow;
Sinks my heart with troubled fear;
Give me faith for clearer vision,
Speak Thou, Lord, in words of cheer.

Let me hear Thy voice behind me,
Calming all these wild alarms;
Let me, underneath my weakness,
Feel the everlasting arms.

Feeble, trembling, fainting, dying,
Lord, I cast myself on Thee,
Tarry with me through the darkness,
While I sleep, still watch by me.

Tarry with me, O my Saviour!
Lay my head upon Thy breast,
Till the morning, then awake me,

THE King of love my Shepherd is,
Whose goodness faileth never;
I nothing lack if I am His,
And He is mine forever.

Where streams of living water flow
My ransomed soul He leadeth,
And, where the verdant pastures grow,
With food celestial feedeth.

Perverse and foolish oft I strayed,
But yet in love He sought me,
And on His shoulder gently laid,
And home, rejoicing, brought me.

In death's dark vale I fear no ill
With Thee, dear Lord, beside me;
Thy rod and staff my comfort still,
Thy cross before to guide me.

Thou spread'st a table in my sight;
Thy unction grace bestoweth;
And oh, what transport of delight
From Thy pure chalice floweth!

And so through all the length of days,
Thy goodness faileth never;
Good Shepherd, may I sing Thy praise
Within Thy house forever.

Sing, sing, Christmas bells!

The little child that sports in glee,
The aged folk that tottering go,
Proclaim the morn that Christ is born,
That saveth them and saveth me!

Sing, heav'nly host! Sing, heav'nly

Sing of the star that God has placed
Above the manger in the East;
Sing of the glories of the night,

Sing to all men where'er they be
This Christmas morn, for Christ is born
That saveth them and saveth me.

Sing, sing, sons of earth!
O ransomed seed of Adam, sing!
God liveth and we have a king!
The curse is gone, the bond are free,
By Bethlehem's star that brightly

Who, like Thyself, my guide and stay can be? Through cloud and sunshine, Lord, abide with me. I fear no foe, with Thee at hand to bless: Ills have no weight, and tears no bitterness, Where is death's sting? where, grave, thy victory? I triumph still, if Thou abide with me. Hold Thou Thy cross before my closing eyes: Shine through the gloom, and point me to the skies: Heaven's morning breaks, and earth's vain shadows flee: In life, in death, O Lord, abide with me.
Swift to its close ebbs out life's little day; Earth's joys grow dim, its glories pass away, Change and decay in all around I see; O Thou Who changest not, abide with me. I need Thy presence every passing hour; What but Thy grace can foil the tempter's power?

Great is Jehovah, the Lord. The earth and the heavens bear witness to His might! 'Tis heard in the blasts of the storm; in the roar of the loud thundering stream. Great is Jehovah, the Lord, and mighty His power. 'Tis heard in rustling leaves on the green forest branches; seen in the fields rich with golden grain; in flowers the fairest, blushing at dawn. 'Tis seen where stars strew the blue vault of heaven. Fierce it sounds in the thunder's dread roll. And flames in the lightning's swift and deathdealing flash. Still clearer thy throbbing heart proclaims Jehovah's power and might. Still clearer thy heart to thee proclaims Jehovah's power. The Lord God Almighty. When to heaven thou dost pray, imploring grace and compassion. Great is Jehovah, the Lord!

"STABAT MATER"

Rossini, while traveling in Spain, was prevailed upon to write and dedicate a "Stabat Mater" to the Abbey, which was accomplished in 1832. Nearly every number of this most operatic "Stabat Mater" is generally familiar. The work opens with an orchestral prelude of brilliant character, to which succeeds the fine opening chorus. Among the most famous numbers comes the tenor solo, which is familiar as a concert number. The duet following is frankly of theatrical fashion with a cadenza. The bass aria is strictly of the religious spirit, while the quartet is one of the most beautiful and difficult numbers in the Cantata. The climax is reached in the splendid "Inflammatus," a soprano obligato with a choral accompaniment.—Rossini.

Opening Sentences

(INTRODUCTION)

Chorus and Quartet
Lord most holy! Lord most mighty!
Righteous ever are Thy judgments.
Hear and save us, for Thy mercies' sake.

AIR—(Tenor)

Lord! vouchsafe Thy loving-kindness.
Hear me in my supplication,
And consider my distress.
Lo! my spirit falls within me,
Oh! regard me with compassion,
And forgive me all my sin!
Let Thy promise be my refuge,
Oh, be gracious and redeem me,
Save me from eternal death!

O God, be merciful to me.

I smite upon my troubled breast,
With deep and conscious guilt oppressed.
Christ and His cross my only plea,
O God, be merciful to me.

Far off I stand with tearful eyes,
Nor dare uplift them to the skies,
But Thou dost all my anguish see,
O God, be merciful to me.

Nor alms nor deeds that I have done,
Can for a single sin atone,
To Calvary alone we flee,
O God, be merciful to me.

And when redeemed from sin and hell,
With all the ransomed throng I dwell,
My raptured song shall ever be,
God has been merciful to me. Amen.

Solitary lieth the city, she that was full of people! How is she widow'd, she that was great among nations, Princess among the provinces. How is she put under tribute! Sorely she weepeth in darkness. Her tears are on her cheeks, and no one off'reth consolation. Yea, all her friends have betrayed her, they are become her enemies.

Zion's ways do languish, none come to her feasts, her solemn feasts. All her gates are desolate: her priests sigh, yea, her virgins are afflicted, and she is in bitterness.

Is it nothing to all ye that pass by? Behold! and see if there be any sorrow that is like unto my sorrow.

Now behold, O Lord, look Thou on my affliction. See the foe hath magnified himself. Jerusalem! O turn thee to the Lord thy God. O turn thee unto thy God.

Anthem—"By Babylon's Wave"Gounod

Here by Babylon's wave,
Though heathen hands have bound us,
Though afar from our land,
The pains of death surround us;
Zion! thy mem'ry still,
In our heart we are keeping,
And still we turn to thee,
Our eyes all sad with weeping.

Thro' our harps that we hung on the trees,
Goes the low wind wearily moaning;
Mingles the sad note of the breeze,
With voice as sad of sigh and groaning.

When mad with wine our foe rejoices,
When unto their altars they throng.
Loud for mirth then they call,
"A song! a song of Sion sing, Hft up your voices!"

O Lord, tho the victor command,
Our captivity sad and lowly,
How shall we raise thy song so holy
That we sung in our father's land?
Jerusalem! Jerusalem! if we forget thee,
Let our hands remember not their power;
And our tongues be silent from that hour.
Jerusalem! let our tongues be silent from that hour, Jerusalem, if we forget thee.

Woe unto thee, Babylon, mighty city,
For the day of thy fall is nigh.
For thee no hope, for thee no pity,
Tho loud thy wail riseth on high!
Then shalt thou desolate, forsaken,
Be torn from thy fanes and thy throne.
In that day, in that day shall thy babes be taken,
Taken and dashed against the stones.
Then unto thee, O Babylon the mighty,
Be woe, be woe, be woe.

adore!
"Welcome, happy morning!" age to age

Earth her joy confesses, clothing her for spring,
All fresh gifts returned with her returning King;
Bloom in every meadow, leaves on every bough.
Speak His sorrow ended, hail His triumph now.
Hell today is vanquished, heaven is won today.

Months in due succession, days of lengthening light,
Hours and passing moments praise
Thee in their flight;
Brightness of the morning, sky and
fields and sea,
Vanquisher of darkness, bring their praise to Thee!
"Welcome, happy morning!" age to age
shall say.
Maker and Redeemer, life and health
of all,
Thou from heaven beholding human

Jerusalem, Jerusalem,
 Lift up your gates and sing
Hosanna in the highest,
 Hosanna to your King.
And then me thought my dream was

And he showed me a pure river of water of life, clear as crystal, proceeding out of the throne of God and of the Lamb. In the midst of the street thereof, and on either side of the river, was there the tree of life, and the leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations. There shall be no more curse, nor pain, nor death, but the throne of God and of the Lamb shall be therein, and His servants shall serve Him, and they shall see His face. For thus saith the Lord: Fear not now, O Israel, neither be thou dismayed. Refrain thine voice from weeping and thine eyes from tears, for I, the Lord, am with thee, and will save thee. I have loved thee with everlasting love, and have redeemed thee. Why cryest thou in thine affliction? Why mournest thou in nightly watches? I have redeemed thee. Therefore thus said the Lord: Sing ye aloud with gladness! Thy mourning is turned into joy! I, even I, have redeemed thee. Be glad and rejoice! Thy sorrows now are ended, and great shall be thy peace. Rejoice! Be glad and rejoice! Then fear not, O Israel, neither be thou dismayed. I have redeemed thee.

Anthem—"Be Ye All of One Mind".....Godfrey

"Be ye all of one mind, having compassion one of another. Love as brethren, be pitiful, be courteous; not rendering evil for evil, or railing for railing; but contrariwise blessing; knowing that ye are thereunto called; that ye should inherit a blessing. For he that will love life and see good days, let him refrain his tongue from evil and his lips that they speak no guile; let him eschew evil and do good; let him seek peace and ensue it. For the eyes of the Lord are over the righteous, and His ears are open unto their prayers; but the face of the Lord is against them that do evil. Amen."

Calm and sweet repose;
With Thy tenderest blessing
May our eyelids close.

Through the long night watches,
May Thine angels spread
Their white wings above me,
Watching round my bed.

Grant to little children
Visions bright of Thee;
Guard the sailors tossing
On the deep, blue sea.

When the morning wakens,
Then may I arise
Pure, and fresh, and sinless
In Thy holy eyes.

What peaceful hours I once enjoyed!
How sweet their mem'ry still!
But they have left an aching void,
The world can never fill.

Return, O holy Dove, return
Sweet messenger of rest!

I hate the sins that made Thee mourn,
And drove Thee from my breast.

The dearest idol I have known,
Whate'er that idol be,
Help me to tear it from Thy throne,
And worship only Thee.
So shall my walk be close with God,
Calm and serene my frame,
So purer light shall mark the road
That leads me to the Lamb.

The grass it withereth, and the flower it fadeth, because the Spirit of the Lord bloweth upon it, but the word of our God endureth forever.

And the younger son gathered together and journeyed to a far-off country, and wasted his substance in riotous living. And when he had spent all, there arose a famine in that land, and he began to be in want, and no man gave unto him. But when he came to himself, he said: "How many hired servants of my father's have bread enough and to spare, while I perish with hunger! I will arise and go unto my father, and will say unto him: "Father, I have sinned against heaven and in thy sight, and am no more worthy to be called thy son. Make me as one of thy hired servants." And he arose and came to his father, who saw him, and had compassion; and ran and said: "Bring forth the best robe and put it on him, and shoes on his feet, and a ring on his hand. For this my son was dead, but is alive again. He was lost and is found. My son was lost, but he is found."

Swift to its close ebbs out life's little

Earth's joys grow dim, its glories pass away,
Change and decay in all around I see:
O Thou Who changest not, abide with me.
I need Thy presence every passing
hour;
What but Thy grace can foil the tempter's power?
Who, like Thyself, my guide and stay can be?
Through cloud and sunshine, Lord,
abide with me.
I fear no foe, with Thee at hand to bless:
Ils have no weight, and tears no
bitterness.
Where is death's sting? where, grave,
thy victory?
I triumph still, if Thou abide with me.
Hold Thou Thy cross before my clos-

And, where the verdant pastures

With food celestial feedeth.

Thou spread'st a table in my sight;

JESUS only, Jesus only,
In the shadow of the clouds so

We are clinging, loving, trusting,
He with us and we with Him.

Jesus only in the glory,
When the shadows all are flown,
Seeing Him in all His beauty,
Satisfied with Him alone,
May we join His ransom'd throng,
Jesus only all our song.

All unseen tho' ever nigh,
He with us and we with Him,
All unseen tho' ever nigh,
Jesus only all our cry.

In the shadow of the clouds
So chill and dim,
We are clinging, loving, trusting,

O LORD most holy, O Lord most mighty, O loving Father, Thee would we be praising alway. Help us to know Thee, know Thee and love Thee; Father, Father, grant us Thy truth and grace; Father, Father, guide and defend us. Rule Thou our wilful hearts; keep Thine our wandering thoughts. In all our sorrows, let us find our rest in Thee, and in all temptation's hour, save through Thy mighty power. Thine aid, O, send us; hear us in mercy; show us Thy favor; so shall we live and sing praise to Thee.

THE GOD of Abr'am praise,
Who reigns enthron'd above,
Ancient of everlasting days
And God of love;
Jehovah, Great I AM,
By earth and heav'n confessed,
I bow and bless the sacred name
Forever bless'd.

The God who reigns on high,
The great archangels sing,
And "Holy, Holy, Holy" cry,
Almighty King,
Who was and is the same,
And evermore shall be,
Jehovah, Father, Great I AM,
We worship Thee.

He by himself hath sworn,
I on His oath depend,
I shall on angel-wings upborne,
To Heav'n ascend.
I shall behold His face,
I shall His pow'r adore,
And sing the wonders of His grace
For evermore.

The whole triumphant host
Give thanks to God on high;
"Hail, Father, Son and Holy Ghost,"
They ever cry:
Hail! Abrahams God and mine,
I join the heav'nly lays,
All might and majesty be Thine
And endless praise. Amen.

And wrapt in shades of death for me.

On Thee my waking raptures dwell,
When crimson gleams the east adorn;
Thee, Victor of the grave and hell.
Thee, source of life's eternal morn.

When noon her throne in light arrays,
To Thee my soul triumphant springs;
Thee, throned in glory's endless blaze,
Thee, Lord of lords and King of kings.

O'er earth, when shades of evening steal,
To death and Thee my thoughts I give;

Offertory Anthem—"Look on the Fields".....Rogers

Look on the fields, for they are ripe already to harvest. The pastures are clothed with flocks. The valleys also are cover'd over with corn. They shout for joy, they also sing. For as the rain cometh down and the snow from heav'n, and returneth not thither, but watereth the earth and maketh it bring forth and bud, so shall my word be that goeth forth out of my mouth. It shall not return unto me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it. O give thanks unto the Lord, for He is good, and His mercy endureth forever. Give thanks to the Lord, for His mercy endureth forever. Amen.

Offertory Anthem—"While the Earth Remaineth".....Tours

While the earth remaineth, seed-time and harvest, and cold and heat, and summer and winter, and day and night shall not cease. O be joyful in God, O be joyful all ye lands. Sing praises unto the honor of His name; make His praise to be glorious. O be joyful in God; O be joyful all ye lands. The river of God is full of water; Thou preparest their corn, for so Thou providest the earth. Thou waterest her furrows; Thou sendest rain into the little valleys thereof. Thou makest it soft with the drops of rain, and blessest the increase of it. Sing unto God, O ye kingdoms of the earth; sing praises to the Lord, O sing praises to the Lord. Sing unto God, O ye kingdoms of the earth; O sing praises unto the Lord. Sing unto God.

Anthem—"The Lost Chord" (8 parts).....Sullivan-Brewer

Seated one day at the organ,
I was weary and ill at ease,
And my fingers wandered idly
Over the noisy keys.
I knew not what I was playing,
Or what I was dreaming then;
But I struck one chord of music
Like the sound of a great Amen.

It flooded the crimson twilight,
Like the close of an Angel's Psalm;
And it lay on my fever'd spirit,
With a touch of infinite calm;
It quieted pain and sorrow,
Like love overcoming strife;
It seem'd the harmonious echo
From our discordant life.

It link'd all perplexed meanings
Into one perfect peace,
And trembled away into silence,
As if it were loth to cease.
I have sought, but I seek it vainly
That one lost chord divine,
Which came from the soul of the organ
And enter'd into mine.

It may be that death's bright angel,
Will speak in that chord again,
It may be that only in Heav'n,
I shall hear that grand Amen.
It may be that death's bright angel,
Will speak in that chord again;
It may be that only in Heav'n,
I shall hear that grand Amen.

 Angels of Jesus,
 Angels of light,
 Singing to welcome

Angels, sing on! your faithful watches

 Sing us sweet fragments of the songs

 Till morning's joy shall end the night of weeping,
 And life's long shadows break in cloudless love.
 Angels of Jesus,

Rest comes at length, though life be

 The day must dawn, and darksome

The twilight shadows fall,
But do not fear;
At evening comes the call
"Be of good cheer."
Though dark the clouds above,
Though dark the clouds above,
Trusting our Father's love,
The sun sets clear.

The twilight shadows fall,
We kneel at peace
With Thee, the world and all.
Our faith increase.
Truth, hope and love abide,
Truth, hope and love abide,
Lord, Thou hast satisfied,
Vain troubling cease.

The twilight shadows fall,
Life's goal is nigh;
We soon may hear Thee call
"Come up on high."
Then fades the night away,
Then fades the night away,
Greet we the perfect day,

Wherewith, in days gone by,
Ye blessed the Syrian swains,
O voices of the sky!

Christmas Day

1927

O GOD, who makest us glad with the yearly remembrance of the birth of thine only Son Jesus Christ; Grant that as we joyfully receive him for our Redeemer, so we may with sure confidence behold him when he shall come to be our Judge, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Ghost, one God, world without end. Amen.

Opening Sentences

Anthem—"Come to the Manger"Maunder

Come to the manger,
All that are weary;
Come to the manger,
Ye that seek peace;
Come to the manger,
Be not so fearful,
From sins that are scarlet
He will release.

Highways and byways
Let them all hear it,
Highways and byways—
Loud the cry raise;
Highways and byways—
Never be resting
Till all the world sings
The Child Saviour's praise.
Hallelujah. Amen.

Psalms—110, 132

Solo—"The Holy Child".....Martin

Away in a manger, no crib for a bed, The little Lord Jesus laid down His sweet head; The stars in the bright sky looked down where He lay, The little Lord Jesus, asleep in the hay.	The cattle are lowing, the Babe awakes, But little Lord Jesus, no crying He makes. I love Thee Lord Jesus, look down from the sky, And stay by my side until morning is nigh.
---	--

Be near me, Lord Jesus, I ask Thee to stay
Close by me forever, and love me,
I pray;
Bless all the dear children in Thy tender care.
And fit us for heaven to live with Thee there.

Lesson—St. Luke 2: 1-20

FAITH AND PRACTICE

We lose our faith when we cease to practice our religion. Men grow careless about prayer, communion, worship, and then wonder at finding themselves doubtful in belief. I know of no other realm of life where people expect knowledge to trickle into their heads without honest effort on their part.—

THE THIRD SUNDAY AFTER EASTER

MAY 7, 1933

ALMIGHTY GOD, who showest to them that are in error the light of thy truth, to the intent that they may return into the way of righteousness. Grant unto all those who are admitted into the fellowship of Christ's Religion, that they may avoid those things that are contrary to their profession; and follow all such things as are agreeable to the same; through our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

O LORD OF HOSTS, behold, earth's sorrow fieth,
Thy holy Son lives, nor dieth!
From the dead He now hath risen, aye, truly hath He risen.
We will sing of the Lord now victorious;
All the terrors of death were in vain,
Let us sing of the Christ ever glorious;
He is risen in glory to reign.
Oh, how radiantly shineth the Easter dawn,
Bright with joy at the glorious triumph won.
Blessed its peace, that shall never cease,
Till men no more love the name of the Son.

Offertory Anthem—"O Sons and Daughters".....Andrews

O sons and daughters, let us sing!
The King of Heav'n, the glorious King,
O'er death today rose triumphing—Alleluia!
That Sunday morn, at break of day,
The faithful women went their way,
To seek the tomb where Jesus lay—Alleluia!
An angel robed in white they see,
Who forthwith spake unto the three,
"Your Lord doth go to Galilee"—Alleluia!
That night the Apostles met in fear;
Above them stood their Lord—most dear,
And said, "My peace be on all here"—Alleluia!
Blest they, whose eyes do not perceive,
Who firmly yet in Him believe.
Immortal life they shall receive—Alleluia! Amen.

Opening Sentences and Prayers

Trio—"Serenade"Widor

Anthem—"I am He That Liveth".....Spicker

Unto you be grace and peace, from Him which is, and was,
and which is to come. And from Jesus Christ, the first begotten of the dead, and the Prince of the Kings of the earth. I am
He that liveth, and was dead. And, behold, I am alive forever more!

Unto Him that lov'd us, and washed us from our sins, and hath made us Kings and Priests, unto God and His Father:
To Him be pow'r and glory, now and ever more!

The Lord is exalted for He dwelleth in heaven. To Him be glory, to Him be dominion, forever and ever.

All hail the pow'r of Jesus' Name!
Let angels prostrate fall;
Bring forth the royal diadem,
And crown Him Lord of all!
Let ev'ry kindred, ev'ry tribe,
To Him all majesty ascribe,
And crown Him Lord of all!—Alleluia!

Lesson—St. Matthew 28:1-10, 16 to end.

Anthem—"The Sound of Many Voices".....Coerne
(By the Boy Choir)

The sound of many voices is heard, with harpers singing praise to Him upon the throne. "Salvation, honor, glory," their one glad triumph song, as thro' the courts of heav'n it rolls in wondrous harmonies.

O great and glorious vision! O wondrous sight for men to see the Saviour with His own. And there His servants serve
Him, and life's long battle o'er, enthroned with Him their Saviour
King, they reign forever more.

Trio—"Romance Sans Paroles".....Van Goens

Sermon—by the Rev. John R. Hart, Jr.

A Prayer for Memorial Day

O Lord, our heavenly Father, Ruler and Governor of all nations of the earth, in whose hands are life and death, and in whose presence the dead are as the living; We give thee thanks for the good examples of all those thy servants who having finished their course in faith, do now rest from their labours, especially those whom we commemorate this day. Preserve, O Lord, we pray thee, the ideals for which they gave their lives. Grant that government of the people, by the people, and for the people may never perish from the earth. Put away from us all manner of slavery, whether of race or caste, deliver us out of the bondage of evil; and from the chain of our sins, let the pitifulness of thy great mercy loose us. Look, we beseech thee, upon the many peoples here dwelling under one government, and take away from us all prejudice and hatred and whatsoever else may hinder us from godly union and concord. Under all conditions of national difficulty, in all times of trial and contention, raise again, we pray thee, as of old, wise and righteous leaders, and bring into glad obedience to them a united nation, strong to do thy will, in the knowledge and obedience of thy word; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE COLLECT FOR THE DAY

O God, who as at this time didst teach the hearts of thy faithful people, by sending to them the light of thy Holy Spirit; grant us by the same Spirit to have a right judgment in all things, and evermore to rejoice in his holy comfort;
 through the merits of Christ Jesus our Saviour, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the same Spirit, one God, world without end. Amen.
